

Antonyms are words that have the opposite meaning.

Directions: Underline the antonym pairs in each sentence.

Example: Rita was the first on line and John was last on line.

1. Martha woke up early, however she missed her bus so she came to school late.
2. Terry wanted to use two colors for her art project, black and white.
3. The teacher asked Harry to close the door and open the window in the classroom.
4. Henry's aunt and uncle came to his graduation.
5. There was a lot of family at the Thanksgiving dinner. John's mother, sister, uncle, father, grandparents and cousins were all at the dinner.
6. Tim's dog got very dirty, so Tim went to clean his dog.
7. The baby drank a full bottle of milk until the bottle was empty.
8. The boy went to sleep at night and woke up in the morning.
9. Dora lost her notebook and Danny found it in the back of the classroom.
10. All the girls moved to the front of the classroom and all the boys moved to the back of the classroom.