

Idioms

are words, phrases or expressions that can not be taken literally (they don't mean exactly how they sound). They have another meaning.

Examples:

Idiom: piece of cake
Literal meaning: piece of cake
Idiomatic meaning: it's very easy
Sentence: The test was a piece of cake.

Idiom: break a leg
Literal meaning: break a bone in your leg
Idiomatic meaning: good luck
Sentence: John said "Bruce, break a leg on your audition".
